

{Sunday} Hindustan Times

FIRST VOICE. LAST WORD.

02

Sunday Hindustan Times

LUCKNOW
SUNDAY
JUNE 29, 2025

Exhibition showcases works of painters, photographers

HT Correspondent

letters@htlive.com

LUCKNOW : As many as 141 artworks of 111 individuals, including painters, photographers and calligraphers, have been displayed in 17th International Calligraphy and Heritage Exhibition on the theme of Muharram that began at State Lalit Kala Akademi here on Saturday.

The exhibition will remain open till July 3 from 11am-6pm daily. One Wise Trust in collaboration with UP Urdu Akademi and Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed Memorial Committee has organised the event.

"This year, around 21 photo artists, 38 painters and 45 calligraphers from India and abroad have participated in the exhibition," said organiser SN

The exhibition will remain open till July 3, from 11am to 6pm daily

HT

Lal.

The participants include Manoj Chhabra, Azam Hussain, Mohd Qamar, Mushtaq, Najmul Hasan, Ali Jain Naqvi, Akit Singh, Saif Raza (Lucknow),

THIS YEAR, AROUND 21 PHOTO ARTISTS, 38 PAINTERS AND 45 CALLIGRAPHERS FROM INDIA AND ABROAD HAVE PARTICIPATED IN THE EXHIBITION

Yogesh Pal (Delhi), Kamkir Warsi (Dehradun) and Aiman Zahra (Kargil).

Secretary finance Shahid Manzar, vice chancellor of Era University Dr Abbas Ali Mehdi, head priest Mankameshwar temple Mahant Devyagiri and Nawab Masood Abdullah were amongst those present during the inauguration ceremony